Dina Alomari

Computer Engineering

My name is Dina Alomari, and I am a self-starter with excellent interpersonal skills. I recently graduated with a very good GPA and have studied several languages, including Javascript, Python, C#, HTML, CSS, and C++.

I was very involved in university activities and was very active. I enjoyed my specialty and decided to pursue it further. I had a lot of fun programming. My ambition is high, but I am confident that I will reach it one day.
